

BP2015

It seems as though the entire potato industry gathered at Harrogate International Centre on 12th and 13th November for BP2015, the key industry event of the year.

A new home for the event, in the centre of Harrogate, had many advantages for those staying over the two days although Harrogate's notorious traffic was an issue for the day visitors.

As usual our stand in Hall H was buzzing on day 1, although the traditional quiet day 2 was not helped by being a Friday.

Our display of carton bakers was a talking point, with many visitors interested to understand why we have returned to the packing arena after an absence of 15 years.

Potatogrow.com, our new website selling seed direct to the gardener also attracted very positive comments as an incentive to grow and promote British potatoes.
